BACHELORS' TENNIS

Chevy Chase Players Displayed Good Form, Though Decisively Defeated.

FLEMING NEWBOLD TRIMS F. HYATT

Home Men Successful in Two Matches of Doubles-Darkness Calls Third.

The Bachelors' Lawn Tennis Club team, playing on its home courts, reeated a recent victory over the Chevy Chase Club team yesterday, winning five matches out of six in the singles and capturing two matches in the dou ples. The Chevy Chase team displayed much better form than in its match with the Bachelors, and the play was close and interesting.

The matches which were the most in teresting in the singles were those be tween O. Bosch, Bachelors, and R. W. Hills, Chevy Chase, and G. Collier, Bachelors, and H. P. Rowland, Chevy Chase. In the former match R. W. Hills, after losing the first set, 6-1 played Bosch to a standstill in the sec The second set was won by Bosch 0-9, but at no time was he sure of hi set, as Hills ran nearly every game up to deuce, and several times came near capturing the set. Little Chance to Catch Cobb In Race for Batting Honors

Georgian Holds Margin as Star Hitter in American League-Eleven Men Are Clouting Over the .300 Mark.

Cobb keeps his praisin as the star batsman of the American League, and the field is strung our behind him, badly scattered.

None of the contes ants seem to have much chance to cat'h up with Tyrus, and his hold upon the laurels seems secure. Eleven men are batting over the .300 mark, Detroit having four of the number; St. Louis, two; Washington, two; New York, Chicago, and Boston, one apiece. Detroit has a long lead in team batting, and also in extra bases. Chicago leads in team fielding.

Eight pitchers still have uninjured fielding records. Sullivan heads the catchers, Donohue the first basemen Killifer the second sackers, and Ferris the third basemen. Turner and Bradley head the shortstops, and Hahn the
